

Incident Reporting

Tiffin University separates incident reporting structure for possible violations in several categories, which are identified below. If you have questions or concerns about which reporting structure to use, please contact The Office of Institutional Diversity & Equity or Office of Student Conduct (Residence Life).

Report a NON-Academic Violation

Non-academic violations encompass behavior that is not related to an allegation of cheating or plagiarism nor sexual harassment/sexual misconduct, or discrimination. It includes behavior related to alcohol, drugs, vandalism, disorderly conduct, etc.

Report a Sexual Harassment/Sexual Misconduct, or Discrimination Violation

This form should be used to report an incident involving an alleged violation of the Tiffin University Gender-Based Discrimination & Sexual Harassment/Misconduct Grievance Policies & Procedures (including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, gender-based harassment, intimate partner violence, bullying, and stalking).

Report an Academic Integrity Violation - Forthcoming

Academic violations include cheating, plagiarism or falsifying official records related to the Tiffin University. General classroom misbehavior is considered a non-academic violation.

Report a Sexual Harassment/Sexual Misconduct, or Discrimination Violation – APPEAL ONLY

This form should be used to APPEAL an incident involving an alleged violation of the Tiffin University Gender-Based Discrimination & Sexual Harassment/Misconduct Grievance Policies & Procedures (including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, gender-based harassment, intimate partner violence, bullying, and stalking).